

PUBLIC LEADER

THIRD YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1894. ONE CENT.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For The Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

- White streamer—Fair.
- Blue—Rain or snow.
- With black above—Thick weather.
- If black beneath—Cold—then warmer.
- Unless black's shown—no change we'll see.
- The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening.

HURRY UP!

The good old world is movin' just as fast as she can go. The whistles—they are blowing, an' the drums beat at the show: An' she'll get there in the mornin', or she's bound to make it later. An' you'd better get your ticket—for the World.

WATT!

GEORGE BONNET GILL is still ill at his home near Washington.

A PORTFOLIO has been established at Emory, Pendleton county.

FOUR years ago to-day Postmaster Davis took charge of the office.

In everybody's mouth—Langdon's Pleaseme Crackers, at G. W. Geisels.

BECKETS given with Bulk and Crackers with Can Oysters this week at John Wheeler's.

GILBERT A. COLLINS, Uncle Sam's Mail Messenger, is quite sick, threatened with pneumonia.

BEN THOMAS, a Maysville man now living and practicing law in Chattanooga, is soon to wed Miss Nannie B. Jones, daughter of the late George W. Jones of Cincinnati. It will be a church wedding.

HOPPER & Co. will move their Jewelry Store March 1st to the room formerly occupied by A. Hone, and for the next thirty days will offer goods at great bargains.

I WILL furnish estimates on Painting of all kinds. Paper hanging a specialty. Prices cheaper than anyone. Leave your orders at Ryder & Rudy's Paintstore. All work guaranteed.

W. E. GREENWOOD.

It is wonderful the steady increase of business that J. Ballenger the Jeweler is enjoying. But it is not so wonderful when you consider that his stock is so large and his prices so low. It would pay you to call and see his large and selected stock. It is by far the finest in Mason county.

This persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McGuire of McKay, O., says: "My little son had a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or croup." Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by John J. Reynolds, Druggist.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

The many friends of Bruce Eason will be pleased to learn that he is getting along splendidly with his crippled foot and ankle, and hopes are long, with the aid of a pair of crutches, to be able to come out and see his old friends.

WHAT BRAVE FELLOWS.

One Man Disperses a Whole Gang of Riotous Hoodlums.

During the trial of Bishop J. V. Mc Namara at Independence, Mo., a man named MacMillan, a witness for the defense, who was somewhat under the influence of liquor, was assaulted by a number of McNamara's opponents in front of a saloon.

Beer bottles, stones and weapons of all kinds were flying thick and fast about MacMillan's head, when he drew a revolver and fired two shots into the crowd, which immediately dispersed.

MacMillan received some injuries, but none of them serious.

None of the cases against the Bishop have been decided.

CONFIRMED PROMPTLY.

The Senate Says Major Thomas J. Chenoweth Will Be Postmaster.

As THE LEADER was first to announce the President's appointment, so it is first to announce that the Senate has confirmed the choice of Major Thomas J. Chenoweth for Postmaster in this city.

A telegram from Senator Blackburn yesterday brought the good news to the Major.

It will be some days, however, before the office changes hands, as there is a necessary amount of "red tape" to be unwound.

THE LEADER believes that the new appointee will make an efficient officer, and he certainly has his best wishes for the successful administration of the arduous and perplexing duties of that position.

Barring his bad politics, he is a most excellent citizen and a courteous gentleman.

GREAT EXCITEMENT

In the Sixth Ward Yesterday Afternoon Over a Shot.

Yesterday afternoon one of our policemen put his nerve in his pocket and started out for a quiet walk, never thinking that he was going to be the center of attraction in a small shooting affray.

After he had almost reached his turning point he saw one "Brandy Bill" Hill, a dealer, who is wanted in the Police Court on an old charge—of disturbing the peace while on route home on one of the street cars last December.

As soon as the officer saw him, "William" he proceeded to place him under the strong arm of the law.

But Mr. "Brandy" wouldn't have it, and started to get out of the officer's way by running.

The noble arm of the law told him to halt, but he thought a good run was better than a stand, so he did the Hanks act.

It was at this point that the officer drew his artillery and trained it on the retreating form of "Bill."

And he didn't stop at the training point, but he unlimbered it, and we suppose if you would go and put your ear to the street car track you could hear the echoes yet.

C. D. OUTER has been confined to his home for several days past with a severe attack of rheumatism.

JAMES M. WOOD, son of J. James Wood of this city, yesterday afternoon delivered the salutatory speech before the Louisville College of Pharmacy.

The like was never seen before! Solid oak suites, French plate leveled glass $45.00—the entire suite, with springs, mattress and show pillows, for only $85. White, Judd & Co. Call and see.

NOTE a few of Hopper & Co. prices on the many bargains they are offering for the next thirty days. One dozen Silver Tea Spoons $6; one dozen Silver Table Spoons $30; one dozen Silver Table Forks $35; one dozen Silver Dessert Forks $30. All good weights. Engraving free. This sale lasts only thirty days.

OUR CHURCH COLUMN.

INTERESTING CHURCH NEWS FROM EVERY POINT.

It is Presented to Our Readers in a Concise Manner—The Programme for To-morrow.

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Nugent will celebrate their china wedding February 6th at Paris.

Rev. W. O. Cochran left yesterday afternoon for Cynthiana, where he will preach to-morrow morning and evening.

Elder A. P. Aten, the new Pastor of the Christian Church at Vanceburg, will preach his first sermon there to-morrow.

Some excellent matter regarding the meeting at the Christian Church has been crowded out this week. Watch for it next Saturday.

Regular services at the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow, morning and evening, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Watts. All are invited.

Rev. O. N. Jolly will preach in Sardis to-morrow. Subject for morning: "Jesus at Nazareth." Evening: "Jesus Forgiving Sin." All cordially invited.

At the Central Presbyterian Church to-morrow there will be no preaching morning or evening. The Sunday-school will be held at 9 o'clock a. m., and the Union Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will be held in the evening at 6 o'clock, to which everybody is invited.

A union young people service will be held at the M. E. Church at Ripley to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. The Endeavor Societies from the Presbyterian and Christian Churches have accepted an invitation from the Epworth League to be present and with their Pastors will take part in the program.

To-morrow is Christian Endeavor Day throughout the world. The Society is now 13 years old and numbers 28,741 Societies and 1,721,460 members, and is a power, startling and wonderful in its results for good. The Societies of this city will observe the day with a Union Meeting at the Central Presbyterian Church at 6 p. m. There should be a large crowd in attendance.

The Disciples of Christ meet for worship and the presentation of the gospel to-morrow at 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sun day school at 9:30 a. m. Y. P. S. C. meets with the union service at the Central Presbyterian Church at 6 p. m. Morning theme: "The Christ's Failure as a Preacher. Why?" Night theme: "The Christ's Success as a Preacher. Why?" Philip Shaff's prophecy, "The information of the 16th century brought division: the reformation of the 20th century will bring union. The least heeded scattered throughout Christendom feel the utter weakness and ineffectuality of a house divided against itself. See it the littleness of humanity organized to perpetuate itself."

"Speaking of church choirs," said an ardent admirer of good singing, "have you ever heard the choir at the Central Presbyterian Church? If you haven't, take time tonight to hear a fine choir. It will pay you."

With this pointer "The Tramp" made it an object to attend this church recently and heard some exceedingly fine music. Not only was the selection of music good, but the members of this choir are all musicians, and in rendering national hymns they pay a great deal of attention to the pronunciation of words, to the modulation and to the music as written, and the manner in which they render the songs gives a most pleasant effect upon the attentive listeners.

The choir is made up as follows: Organist, G. W. Blatterman. Soprano, Mrs. Robert Cummings. Tenor, Dr. P. Gordon Sumot. Alto, Mrs. Jennie King. Bass, C. Shultz Wood.

Many worthy compliments have been passed on the preaching of Rev. W. A. since his arrival in Maysville. More than one have been ardent admirers spoken in the highest words of praise of the new Pastor, but none have half so well expressed their views as a reader of this paper who signs himself "A Regular Attendee."

It came to "The Tramp" last Tuesday, but was held for the church column on account of giving it a location in a place where it belonged. There is an abstract of the letter referred to. Having been quite a regular attendant during the meeting at the Christian Church, and having heard many learned men in my day, I am constrained to admit that the rapid flight of fifty years such grand impressions are never before upon my mind and soul by the rich unfolding of the Master's life, purpose and teaching. Never before has the Savior of men been so presented to the people. He has been the central figure in every discourse and that many of the things have been brought to the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus by the powerful presentation of the gospel truth.

There are thirty-one ministerial students at Georgetown College.

The revival fire is spreading over all East Maysville. Two additions and three conversions at night and many calls for the prayers of the church at Mitchell's Chapel. Communion service and baptism and reception of members and preaching by Presiding Elder Reeves to-morrow at 10:30 a. m. Regular services this evening and to-morrow evening and through the week. The church's meeting this afternoon at 8 o'clock.

There will be services in the Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow as follows: Sunday-school at 9:30 a. m.; preaching at 10:30 a. m., the topic being "A Study of the First Book of Kings;" general assembly meeting at 2 p. m.; Epworth League devotional meeting at 6 p. m., topic, "Deborah, Zeal for God;" preaching at 7 p. m., topic, "Jesus, the Christ, Our Savior." One and all are invited to come and join with us in worship. Comfortable room, free pews and good music.

At the Men's Meeting to-morrow the subject will be "How to Overcome." Professor E. Swift will lead. This should be sufficient to fill the Y. M. C. A. hall, for on Sunday every living creature should praise God. The room is open all day, and in the afternoon, when you have no place to go and feel that you must go to the hotels or loaf on the streets, come to the Y. M. C. A. You will find it bright, warm and cheerful. If you wish to read, magazines, newspapers and periodicals are in abundance; if you wish to converse, your friends are there; if you want to sing, you can do this, and best of all, at 8 o'clock the Men's Meeting is held, where you can sing, praise God and give to God the blessed peace and joy which serving Him brings. You are cordially invited and a hearty welcome awaits you. Try it once and you will never want for a place to go. A business meeting will be held following at 8 o'clock.

The entertainment at the Opera-house Monday night at the Harvard Quartette, assisted by Miss Ada May Costes, will be a most interesting affair. It is for a worthy object—the benefit of the Episcopal Church—we earnestly trust that it will receive a liberal patronage.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note in that effect.

Mrs. Jennie Baird will return to Carlisle to-day.

Miss Belle Gies left last evening to visit her brother at Newport.

D. L. Dohyas, a prominent citizen of Helena, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Henry A. Power of Paris is on a visit to the family of John W. Power.

Miss Annie Wilson and Miss Mamie Scott of Maysville will leave today for a tour of Europe.

Colonel A. S. Cole, Postmaster and first citizen of Paris, was in the city yesterday and paid The Leader a pleasant call.

Jerry Miah Hawley the bustling, bustling, bustling haberdasher of Fortman's Springs, was in Maysville yesterday.

Mrs. Apperson, wife of Judge Lewis Apperson of Mt. Sterling, returns home today after a short visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Wall.

Mrs. Mary G. Clarke and daughters, Mrs. J. H. Rogers and Mrs. Jennie O. Clarke, have gone to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras festivities.

BASEBALL.

A Meeting of Baseballists From Three States to Be Called.

Regarding baseball matters Frank Mercer, fronton's pitcher, who, with Manager Sanders of Chillicothe, is having in the matter of organizing clubs in various cities in this vicinity and forming a tri-state league, says that everything looks favorable, at this point at least, and he thinks there will be no trouble in forming a league. He has been writing to various cities in this vicinity that they will subscribe $100 each to a club here and he is sure he can get other assistance. Chillicothe, Maysville, Ashland, Portsmouth, Huntington and Charleston are expected to form clubs and join the league. It is the intention to invite representatives from the cities that they will subscribe $100 each to a club here and he is sure he can get other assistance.
